Welcome Back!

Man, it's so good to have Ty England back. He stopped by Country Weekly the other day to play his new single, "Redneck Anthem," from his new Alive and Well and Livin' the Dream CD, set for a spring release. Ty scored hits in the mid-'90s such as "Should've Asked Her Faster," after touring as guitarist and harmony vocalist for Garth Brooks, his college roommate. When Ty's solo career faltered, he returned to his native Oklahoma to spend more time with his family. He also took control of his career, becoming a mainstay of county fairs and festivals. Now he's ready to tackle radio again—and, radio, you need to listen up. Ty's got it.
